

Alatrofloxacin - (Trovan IV - withdrawn from market 2001)

Amifloxacin - similar to Cipro

Balofloxacin - Baloflox; Bazucin

Besifloxacin - Besivance (ophthalmic)

Ciprofloxacin - Cipro. as of 2011, FDA added 2 black box warnings for spontaneous tendon rupture

Clinafloxacin - (phototoxicity and hypoglycemia)

Danofloxacin - veterinary

Delafoxacin - effective against MRSA

Difloxacin - Veterinary

Enoxacin - (sold under the following trade names Almitil, Bactidan, Bactidron, Comprecin, Enoksetin, Enoxen, Enroxil, Enoxin, Enoxor, Flumark, Penetrex, Gyramid, Vinone) no longer sold in USA. may have cancer inhibiting properties

Enrofloxacin - Baytril. currently approved for Veterinary

Fleroxacin - Quinodis and Megalocin

Garenoxacin - request for FDA approval has been withdrawn

Gatifloxacin - Gatiflo, Tequin and Zymar. Zymar is ophthalmic. Tequin has caused diabetes, hallucinations and liver damage. only Zymar ophthalmic now available.

Gemifloxacin - Factive

Grepafoxacin - Raxar. can lengthen the QT interval, causing sudden death from cardiac events

Levofloxacin - Levaquin and Tavanic. as ophthalmic: Oftaquix, Quixin and Iquix. cardiotoxicity, arrhythmias, peripheral neuropathy. spontaneous tendon ruptures.

Lomefloxacin - Maxaquin, Okacyn, Uniquin. phototoxicity. adverse CNS effects. spontaneous tendon ruptures.

Marbofloxacin - Veterinary

Moxafoxacin - Avelox, Avalox, and Avelon. as ophthalmic: Vigamox, Moxeza. two FDA black box warnings for tendon rupture.

Nadifloxacin- Acuatim, Nadiflox, Nadoxin, Nadixa, activon. used to treat acne.

Norfloxacin - Noroxin. ophthalmic: Chibroxin. the license says "drug of last resort when all other antibiotics have failed." tendon rupture. irreversible peripheral neuropathy.

Ofloxacin - Floxin. Occuflox ophthalmic. Floxin Otic ear drops. irreversible peripheral neuropathy. tendon rupture. can result in lifelong disability.

Orbifloxacin - for dogs.

Pazufloxacin - Pasil and Pazucross (in Japan).

Pefloxacin - an analog of Norfloxacin. used in France. not approved for use in USA. drug of last resort, for both human and veterinary use.

Prulofloxacin - currently undergoing FDA trials for uncomplicated UTI.

Rufloxacin - Ruflox, Monos, Qari, Tebraxin, Uroflox, Uroclar

Sitafoxacin - DU-6859a. Gracevit in Japan.

sparfloxacin - Zagam and Zagam Respipac. controversial safety profile. no longer available in the USA.

Temafoxacin - Omniflox. approved and then withdrawn in 1992. (3 deaths among the first 50 patients in first 4 months)

Tosufloxacin - Ozex, in Japan. associated with severe thrombocytopenia and nephritis, and hepatotoxicity

Trovafoxacin (Trovan - withdrawn from market, 2001)

Kano trovafoxacin trial litigation - in trial phase for adverse effects among children in Nigeria, who were the trial population. They were severely ill with meningitis.

